Your Challenge

Building a new team
Unclear roles and responsibilities
Changing organisational / team structure

Solutions

HR audit - Strategic / operational review of organisational / team structure, identifying areas for improvement and a practical action plan.

Psychometric assessments - understanding skills and behavioural preferences, improving task allocation to enhance individual, team and organisational performance.

Facilitated team sessions - to clarify team structure, culture and engender respect for individual differences.

Workshops - team activities focused on improving role clarity and team effectiveness.

Coaching – focused sessions to address individual role challenges.
